

PAACL – Celebrating Over 60 Years of Community Inclusion!

Community & Residential Support Workers

Port Alberni Association for Community Living (PAACL) is currently seeking casual Community & Residential Support Workers to join our team!

PAACL provides programs and services to adults with intellectual disabilities & children/youth with special needs and their families. Be part of a dynamic team who provide person-centered care enhancing quality of life and promoting maximum independence. Casual shifts consist of day, evening and weekend hours.

Here's what PAACL offers:

- Competitive Wages
- Generous Benefit Package for Regular Employees
- Opportunity for Professional Development and Career Advancement
- On the Job Training and Support

Successful Applicants will have:

- Community Support / Residential Care Aid Certification
- Current Emergency First Aid/CPR Certificate
- Necessary Immunizations
- Satisfactory Criminal Records Search through the Solicitor General of BC
- Valid Driver's Licence (Class 4 for Residential Support must be obtained within six months of employment).

For more information on the Port Alberni Association for Community Living, please visit our website at www.paacl.ca